Mee Derby Hires Three Recruiters, Growing More National in Scope

CABIN JOHN, Maryland - August 15, 2005 - Executive search firm Mee Derby & Company announces the addition of three Executive Recruiters, spanning the country, and bringing its core recruiting staff to 12. With the hiring of Staffing Industry veterans Alyse Parrino (California), Cindy Hall (North Carolina), and Bonnie Kay Browning (Texas), Mee Derby has 10 Executive Recruiters on staff. Combined, Parrino, Hall, and Browning bring 36 years of additional Staffing Industry experience to Mee Derby's expanding client base.

"Mee Derby is now able to offer two recruiters in California/West Coast, two in the Southeast, and our first recruiter in Texas," says Robin Mee, President of Mee Derby. "This growth brings significant industry intelligence and new networking channels to our client companies. If recent hiring trends continue, we're on track to have 20 Executive Recruiters by the end of 2006."

Alyse K. Parrino joins Mee Derby as an Executive Recruiter based in the San Francisco Bay area. A veteran with 15 years experience in the Staffing Industry, she is now focusing on recruiting and business development exclusively for the Staffing Industry. Alyse has managed and sold staffing services both locally and nationally. Alyse has managed staffing firms with a focus in the areas Financial, Banking, Information Technology, Human Resources, Legal, and Administrative Support. Before transitioning into the Search Industry, Alyse had a career in Commercial Real Estate and Banking.

Cindy Hall joins Mee Derby with nine years of recruiting experience in North Carolina. Cindy manages Mee Derby's Southeastern region, which includes the Carolinas, Tennessee, Georgia, and Florida. She began her career in staffing with a regional firm in Greensboro, NC, in 1996 as an Account Executive managing Industrial and Clerical clients. In 1998, she began recruiting on a direct hire basis for another regional search firm, focusing on Financial Services/Insurance, Advertising/Marketing, and high-level Executive Support. Cindy has received acclaim for writing job search advice for regional publications.

Bonnie Kay Browning returns to Mee Derby with 12 years of Staffing Industry experience. Bonnie Kay manages Mee Derby's accounts in the Texas region where she is based, and supports the Northeast where she has extensive market knowledge and relationships. Before rejoining Mee Derby as an Executive Recruiter, Bonnie Kay spent four years as a Senior Talent Agent with a national speakers bureau and four years recruiting Staffing Industry professionals for Mee Derby. Bonnie Kay began her career in recruiting in 1993 with a Legal Staffing company based in Washington, DC.
